

Civilian Oversight of Policing:

The features and limits of current approaches

Wednesday, December 1ST
1:00PM-2:00PM EST

Improved civilian oversight has been a component of most police reform agendas for the better part of a century. But what do we mean by “civilian oversight,” and what are the characteristics of different oversight models? In this final event in the Justice Collaboratory’s Fall 2021 Policing Conversation Series, we will scrutinize different approaches and discuss how they fit into the policing accountability landscape.

Policing Conversation Series

This series will examine some of the most significant structural barriers to policing reform, including limitations on local control, lack of transparency, and gaps in civilian oversight. Through discussions with leading experts and practitioners, this three-part series will identify policy-based solutions for overcoming these barriers. All three of these events will be hosted on Zoom.
