

Yale Global Health Justice Partnership
A PROGRAM OF YALE LAW SCHOOL AND THE YALE SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH

Protecting Rights During the COVID-19 Epidemic: Resources For Connecticut Residents

Mar. 18, 2020

Access to State Benefits and Protections

- A terrific factsheet (covering public assistance, unemployment, HUSKY health insurance, utilities, food, and housing) by Center for Children's Advocacy Medical-Legal Partnership
- Utilities: Families facing imminent shutoff notices or whose utilities were shut off should call the Public Utility Regulatory Authority (PURA) at 1-800-382-4586
- Families that need information about special education rights should try CPAC, (860) 739-3089, <http://cpacinc.org>
- Information here from the CT Department of Labor about unemployment benefits.
- Information here about the new special enrollment period for those without health insurance, via AccessHealthCT
- Information here on what to do about price gouging
- Website collecting state updates and information on benefits etc., to be regularly updated here

Vulnerable Populations

- Urgent Action Needed to Protect Individuals in Connecticut's Prisons and Jails from Coronavirus-19 Pandemic – open letter by Yale Global Health Justice Partnership, Stop Solitary CT, Sex Workers and Allies Network, ACLU CT, Connecticut Bail Fund, and the Katal Center for Health, Equity, and Justice
- Worth Rises is also working on efforts in CT and nationally to make phone calls for incarcerated people free
- Recommendations around actions to protect the homeless and housing insecure here

Quarantine and other restrictions on liberty

- Summary of quarantine and other public health powers in CT
- ACLU of Connecticut is a group you might contact with legal concerns in this regard

Achieving A Fair and Effective COVID-19 Response

- Open Letter from experts in public health and law to federal, state, and local leaders about what is needed in the COVID-19 response (Mar. 2, 2020)