GRANTS AND FELLOWSHIPS

Yale Institute of Global Health Leadership Fellowship
Deadline: February 17, 2020

The Yale Institute of Global health has launched their Leadership in Global Health Fellowship, a comprehensive, multi-faceted program open to all Yale University students that includes:
participation in an advanced leadership and ethics training seminar; service learning opportunities with YIGH programs; and placement in a high-impact internship with ministries of health, multilateral global health organizations, or large-scale global health non-profits. Please click here for more information or consult their website. Applications are due Monday, February 17.

Yale Law School Fellowship at the Permanent Court of Arbitration in The Hague:

Deadline: February 18, 2020

The Yale Law School is pleased to announce the 2020-2021 Yale Law School Fellowship at the Permanent Court of Arbitration (PCA) at The Hague. This unique Fellowship is open to graduating Yale Law students and recent alumni who are interested in careers in international law and dispute resolution. It is funded through support from the Howard M. Holtzmann Endowment Fund for International Arbitration and Dispute Resolution at Yale Law School. YLS Fellows will spend one year on the staff of the PCA, beginning in the Fall of 2020. Responsibilities will include significant legal research and drafting. Fellows also will organize and observe hearings and deliberations, help negotiate and resolve issues among arbitrators, and work with the Secretary General to promote the PCA. More information can be found here.

Funding for International Research - Summer Recess Deadline: April 27, 2020

The Streicker Fund for Student Research provides support for academic projects requiring international travel. Examples include field research, in-country interviews with relevant stakeholders, and archival research. Research trips are typically conducted during extended academic recesses (e.g., summer or winter break).

The Oscar M. Ruebhausen Fund for student domestic research projects provides support for students to engage in domestic research and pursue academic inquiry and discourse. This fund is part of the larger Oscar M. Ruebhausen Fund.

Check the YLS website for information regarding other opportunities, including support for student research and activities, post-graduate fellowship.
opportunities and the international law career guide. The Yale University student grants databases also a great resource for both Yale-specific and external funding sources.

For writing and publishing opportunities, check out the YLS Student Activities Resources site.
