A Conversation between Garth Schofield, Senior Legal Counsel, Permanent Court of Arbitration, and Harold H. Koh, Sterling Professor of International Law, Yale Law School.

Please join us for a conversation between Garth Schofield '09, Senior Legal Counsel at the Permanent Court of Arbitration, and Harold H. Koh, Sterling Professor of International Law at Yale Law School. Garth Schofield is Senior Legal Counsel at the Permanent Court of Arbitration where he works closely with the arbitral tribunals and commissions constituted in some of the PCA’s largest and most complex proceedings, including the majority of inter-state arbitrations at the PCA since 2009 and the recent Timor Sea Conciliation. In addition to his work with tribunals in PCA-administered arbitrations, he assists the PCA Secretary-General in the designation and appointment of arbitrators under the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules, participates in multilateral and bilateral negotiations on behalf of the PCA, and frequently writes and presents on issues of public international law and dispute resolution.

Lunch provided. RSVP required, please email at aleksandra.kopacz@yale.edu

GRANTS AND FELLOWSHIPS

Funding for International Research - Summer Recess Deadline: April 27, 2020

The Streicker Fund for Student Research provides support for academic projects requiring international travel. Examples include field research, in-country interviews with relevant stakeholders, and archival research. Research trips are typically conducted during extended academic recesses (e.g., summer or winter break).

The Oscar M. Ruebhausen Fund for student domestic research projects provides support for students to engage in domestic research and pursue academic inquiry and discourse. This is part of the larger Oscar M. Ruebhausen Fund.

Check the YLS website for information regarding other opportunities, including support for student research and activities, post-graduate fellowship opportunities and the international law career guide. The Yale University student grants databases also a great resource for both Yale-specific and external funding sources.

For writing and publishing opportunities, check out the YLS Student Activities Resources.
