Investing in the Frontlines:

Why Trusting and Supporting Communities of Color Will Help Address Gun Violence

Conclusion:

State, county, and local governments should work with health departments, hospitals, schools, universities and non-profits to:

1. share data on all forms of violence
2. identify protocols for screenings and referrals
3. develop and enhance programs and policies to prevent and reduce violence in communities of color
4. use data to continuously increase the efficiency and effectiveness of these efforts
