

ADRIAN HERNANDEZ

15 East 16th St. Apt. 4, New York, NY 10136 • ahernandez@gmail.com • (203) 555-1212

EXPERIENCE

BRUNE & RICHARD LLP, New York, NY

Associate. September 20XX – present.

Advise on variety of white collar and civil litigation matters, including commercial litigation, investigations, and arbitration. Perform legal research and draft memoranda, motions to dismiss, appellate briefs, requests for production, affidavits, and demand letters. Manage client and witness interview preparation, forensic data collection, and document review. Participate in mediations and settlement negotiations and draft settlement agreements. Represent indigent individuals in Criminal Justice Act cases.

DEBEVOISE & PLIMPTON LLP, New York, NY

Summer Associate (received full-time offer). May – July 20XX

Analyzed New York case law and wrote memoranda on products liability issues. Evaluated international data privacy regimes for comparative survey. Revised complaint in voting rights case brought on behalf of the Latino community in Queens, New York. Prepared permanent residence applications for asylees from Haiti.

HON. MARY CAMPBELL, U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of New York, Brooklyn, NY

Student Law Clerk. May – July 20XX

Wrote draft opinions on federal personal jurisdiction, local employment discrimination law, and arbitration agreements. Summarized civil rights case developments. Attended hearings and meetings with probation officers.

THE NEW REPUBLIC MAGAZINE, New York, NY

Editorial Producer, Freelance Writer. June 20XX – May 20XX

Reported and staged five live journalism programs for TheNewRepublicLIVE, the magazine's events division. Negotiated content, timing, and high-level speaker recruitment with editorial staff, event management team, and underwriters. Published six articles in English and Spanish for TheNewRepublic.com.

EDUCATION

YALE LAW SCHOOL, J.D., May 20XX

Activities: Editor, The Yale Law Journal
Coker Fellow in Constitutional Law
Speechwriter, Dean Anthony Kronman
Research Assistant, Professors Akhil Amar and Amy Chua
Latinx Law Students Association

BROWN UNIVERSITY, B.A., cum laude, with High Honors in Political Science, May 20XX

Honors Thesis: "The Evolving Politics of Solidarity in El Salvador"

Activities: Associate Editor, Staff Writer, Brown Magazine
Co-Chair, Brown-Pembroke Women's Leadership Conference
President, La Organización de Puertorriqueños en Brown

SELECT PUBLICATIONS

- Note, Civil Rights Litigation in El Salvador, 120 YALE L.J. 681 (20XX), reprinted in CIVIL RIGHTS LITIGATION HANDBOOK (Steven Saltzman ed., 20XX).
- Judicial Misconduct in the Age of Social Media, FED. LAW., April/May 20XX (with Judge Campbell).
- El Salvador's Invisible Health Crisis, THE NEW REPUBLIC, Dec. 6, 20XX.

ADMISSIONS

New York; U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York.

LANGUAGES

Spanish (native fluency); German (basic, written and oral).

RILEY DEARBORN

670 N. May St, Chicago, IL 60642 · rdearborn@aya.yale.edu · 203-555-1212

EDUCATION

YALE LAW SCHOOL, New Haven, CT

J.D., June 20XX

Honors: Grant Herman Prize (for excellence in appellate advocacy through law-school clinic)

Activities: Research Assistant for Professor Neal Katyal
International Refugee Assistance Project Co-Director

UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD, Oxford, England

M.S., June 20XX

Honors: The Jeffrey and Remick Lederman Scholarship

Activities: Oxford College Ball President (managed a £25,000 budget to plan a 500-attendee event)

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN, Ann Arbor, MI

B.A., summa cum laude, Classics and Latin majors, May 20XX

Honors: Phi Beta Kappa | Smith Family Honors Program
Cecilia VanSickle Award (for the highest GPA of a foreign language major)
Colleen Schifftrin Award (for excellent work in Classics)
John Pringle Scholarship (for a Michigan graduate studying at Oxford)

Study Abroad: College Year in Paris, Paris, France, Spring 20XX

EXPERIENCE

U.S. DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS, Chicago, IL

20XX – 20XX

Law Clerk to the Honorable Andrea R. Wood

- Oversee third of docket. Write draft orders. Research topics including copyright, bankruptcy, and procedure.

CONNECTICUT CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION, Hartford, CT

20XX – 20XX

Staff Attorney (20XX – 20XX); Fellow (20XX – 20XX)

- Co-developed class action challenging immigration bond hearing procedures by identifying plaintiffs, setting case strategy, co-drafting complaint and preliminary injunction motion, and preparing supporting declarations.
- Led drafting of several briefs in class actions, including class certification motion, opposition to class decertification, and supplemental brief on mootness. Argued class certification and enforcement motions. Second-chaired deposition.
- Developed and led briefing in several immigration habeas petitions and amicus appearances in similar cases.
- Co-drafted two amicus briefs and prepared pre-litigation memorandum in Second Circuit appeals.
- Co-monitored settlement compliance in challenge to solitary confinement in Connecticut state prisons through site visits, correspondence with class members, and negotiation with opposing counsel.
- Led advocacy for local rule changes.

JENNER & BLOCK LLP, Chicago, IL

Summer 20XX

Litigation Department Summer Associate (offer extended)

- Researched and wrote memoranda on topics such as cybersecurity, sentencing, and corporations, including for a Supreme Court amicus brief. Drafted portion of motion to dismiss. Attended client meetings.

WORKER AND IMMIGRANT RIGHTS ADVOCACY CLINIC, YALE LAW SCHOOL, New Haven, CT

20XX – 20XX

Law Student Intern

- Drafted briefs for E.D.N.Y. and the Second Circuit, compiled discovery requests, argued discovery conference, second-chaired deposition, conducted research, and coordinated press in challenge to proposed legislation.
- Drafted briefs, conducted research, monitored compliance, and coordinated press in challenge to proposed legislation.

CLYDE & CO., London, UK

Summer 20XX

Legal Intern

- In first-instance extradition case, drafted skeleton argument, researched and recommended expert witness, edited expert reports, and assisted barrister during trial.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Admissions: Connecticut; Illinois; Second Circuit; Seventh Circuit; DCT, NDIL

Languages: Latin (advanced), Spanish (intermediate), Russian (proficient)