One-year fellowship at ACS’s national headquarters in Washington D.C. doing legal policy work on a range of progressive issues, including access to justice, criminal justice, First Amendment, separation of powers, constitutional interpretation, democracy and voting, equality and liberty. NOT YET AVAILABLE FOR 2020.

Americans for Immigrant Justice Litigation Fellowship

Rolling Basis

This is a one-year, Miami, FL-based fellowship, assisting AI Justice’s Litigation Program in litigating individual and class action lawsuits in federal court. AI Justice’s Litigation Program staff work on a wide range of civil rights and civil liberties cases in federal court in Florida and around the U.S. For this position, AI Justice is particularly interested in candidates with Spanish fluency, immigration experience and/or federal court expertise, though that is not required. The fellow will also provide legal services to detained unaccompanied minors in Immigration Court. NOT YET AVAILABLE FOR 2020.

A Better Balance Local Solutions Support Center Fellowship

This is a one-year, New York City-based fellowship designed to help support a project that is dedicated to strengthen, protect, and defend local democracy. In recent years, state legislatures have increasingly blocked—or “preempted”—the right of cities and counties to pass local measures that advance economic justice, racial justice, public health, women’s rights, and nondiscrimination issues. The legal fellow will provide legal assistance to city attorneys, policymakers, and advocates on both defensive and proactive strategies. NOT YET AVAILABLE FOR 2020.
