During the Exam

Students may not use earphones, mobile telephones, or any other electronic devices that have text messaging capabilities.

Ear plugs are available in the Registrar's Office and the library.

You may leave the room to use the restroom.

Open Book Exams

You may leave the classroom; however:

- You may not leave the classroom until the proctor begins the exam.
- You must return the exam questions to the proctor in the classroom at the conclusion of the exam.

You may consult your notes, materials assigned in class, textbook, etc.

You may not cut and paste previously prepared material.

You may not use `ctrl+f` (find/search) to search your notes.

Modified Open/Modified Closed Book Exams

Consult the exam notes in YLS:Exams

Example:

- You may consult the textbook and any materials on the course Canvas website and any materials that you prepared or helped prepare, including class notes. You may use the “control F” function on your computer with respect to these materials.
- You may not use other books or sources or the Internet. I actually do not think these other sources would be helpful to you and that you would be wasting your time, and hence set forth this rule for the benefit of all.

Closed Book Exams

- You must stay in the assigned room to complete the exam. At the end of the posted time, proctors from the Registrar's Office will collect the questions, your scratch material, and your blue books. If you complete your examination by computer, you may upload your answers to YLS Exams.
- Some closed book exams may require exam software. The Registrar's Office will contact students required to use exam software with more information about using Electronic Blue Book (EBB).

A proctor will return to give a 5 or 10 reminder

When the proctor calls time, stop working on your exam

Upload your exam answers to YLS:Exams

- Or submit hard copy answers to proctor

The image shows the top portion of the Yale Law School Online Transcript Ordering website. It features the Yale crest logo on the left and the title "Yale Law School Online Transcript Ordering" in a dark blue font. Below the title, there are two sections. The first section, titled "Current students & those with active NetIds", includes a note that users will be prompted for login credentials after clicking the "Yale Sign In" button. This section is highlighted with a red border and contains a small Yale crest icon and a blue "Yale Sign In" button. The second section, titled "Former students and those without active NetIds", includes a note that users will be taken to a registration form after clicking the "Parchment Sign In" button. This section contains a small Parchment logo and a blue "Parchment Sign In" button.

The image shows a screenshot of the Parchment "Update Account Information" form. At the top, the Parchment logo is displayed. The form title is "Update Account Information". It contains three required input fields, each marked with a red asterisk: "Email", "First name", and "Last name". Each field is a simple white text box. At the bottom of the form is a prominent green "Submit" button.
