Honor Statement

I pledge on my honor that I have not received any information regarding the nature or content of the questions in this examination, that I have completed the examination in accordance with conditions set forth by the instructor, that I will not report, directly or indirectly, any matter concerning those questions to any member of the course who has not taken the examination, that no one has assisted me with the exam, and that I will not share copies of my own exam answers, in any format, at any time, with anyone. If I am downloading exam questions or materials, I pledge that I will not copy, keep, or share these exam questions with anyone.

Open Book Exams

- You may consult your notes, materials assigned in class, textbook, etc.
- You may not cut and paste previously prepared material.
- You may not use `ctrl+f` (find/search) to search your notes.

Modified Open Book Exams

- Consult the exam notes in YLS:Exams
- Example:
 - You may consult the textbook and any materials on the course Canvas website and any materials that you prepared or helped prepare, including class notes. You may use the “control F” function on your computer with respect to these materials.
 - You may not use other books or sources or the Internet. (I actually do not think these other sources would be helpful to you and that you would be wasting your time, and hence set forth this rule for the benefit of all.)

WHAT HAPPENS ON THE DAY OF THE EXAM?

The Night Before

- Set an alarm
- Pack your laptop
- Know which classroom you are going to

Exam Day

- Plan to arrive 10-15 minutes early
- Find a seat
 - Closed book exams: every other seat occupied

Exam Day

- Initial the proctor sheet and receive a hard copy of the exam questions
