JEWISH LAWYERS
AND THE AMERICAN
LEGAL PROFESSION:
A PARADOXICAL
HISTORY

A LECTURE
AND CONVERSATION WITH BRITT TEVIS,
POSTDOCTORAL
FELLOW AT YPSA

STERLING LAW
BUILDING 128
THURSDAY, OCT. 24, 2019
12:10–1 PM

Britt Tevis is a Postdoctoral Associate in the Yale Program for the Study of Antisemitism. She received her Ph.D. in U.S. History from the University of Wisconsin–Madison and her J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School. Her articles have been published in the American Journal of Legal History and American Jewish History. Currently, she is completing her first book entitled, May It Displease the Court: Jewish Legal Networks and the Democratization of American Law.