

AI, the Laws of War, and U.S.-China Relations

LI Qiang

Edward Wittenstein

LI Qiang: Director, Military Law Institute and Associate Professor, China University of Political Science and Law; acting Secretary-General of the Beijing Military Law Society, a member of the Advisory Group of Experts on AI Governance for China's Ministry of Foreign Affairs, civilian legal advisor for some institutions of the People's Liberation Army Air Force and the People's Armed Police Force

Edward Wittenstein: Executive Director of International Security Studies at the Yale Jackson School of Global Affairs; Executive Director, Johnson Center for the Study of American Diplomacy; Visiting Faculty Fellow, Center for Global Legal Challenges

Please join the Paul Tsai China Center for a conversation on how law is shaping the use of AI for military purposes in China, the U.S., and globally with Professors LI Qiang and Ted Wittenstein. Topics of discussion will include the regulation of lethal Autonomous Weapon Systems, International Humanitarian Law, and U.S.-China relations. Center Fellow Karman Lucero will moderate.

to register for the event

Wednesday April 3, 2024

12:10 – 1:00 PM

BH 116

Open to the Yale Community, lunch will be served