Justice Across Borders:

A Discussion with Jenny Shi, Director of Finding Yingying

In 2017, a visiting scholar from China went missing at University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign. The disappearance of Yingying Zhang grabbed headlines in both countries. The story, tenderly told in the Emmy-nominated documentary, Finding Yingying, raises many questions: What is the meaning of justice? Who keeps a community safe? Do the answers differ across borders and political systems? Join us for a discussion with the film's director, Jenny Shi, moderated by postdoctoral fellow Yangyang Cheng.
