Lifting as We Climb: Life for Women and Families after Incarceration
YLS Auditorium | Monday, September 9th at 4:10 PM

A conversation about women in the criminal justice system featuring Susan Burton & Romarilyn Ralston, activists and advocates for formerly incarcerated women.

Susan Burton is the author of the award-winning book Becoming Ms. Burton: From Prison to Recovery to Leading the Fight for Incarcerated Women. Ms. Burton founded A New Way of Life Reentry Project in 1998. Since its founding more than 1,000 women and children have found safety and support in seven reentry homes in Los Angeles.

Romarilyn Ralston is a feminist activist for domestic violence survivors. Ms. Ralston currently serves as the Program Director of California State Fullerton’s Project Rebound, a programming center created with the aim of making higher education more accessible to formally incarcerated individuals.
