

MASS SUPERVISION

Probation, Parole, and the Illusion of Safety and Freedom

VINCENT SCHIRALDI

With a foreword by Bruce Western

LUNCHTIME SPEAKER SERIES

Probation, Parole, and the Illusion of Safety and Freedom

Join The Justice Collaboratory & the Law and Racial Justice Center for lunch and a rich discussion centering on an important new book Mass Supervision: Probation, Parole, and the Illusion of Safety and Freedom. This bold work by Vincent Schiraldi, a longtime justice advocate, calls community corrections into question. This dynamic panel features people directly impacted by probation & parole alongside longtime reformers.

Panelists

Vincent Schiraldi, Secretary, MD Department of Juvenile Services,
Founder, Center on Juvenile & Criminal Justice

Maurice Keitt, Community Researcher, The Justice Collaboratory

Lisa Puglisi, M.D., Associate Professor of Medicine, Director, The Transitions Clinic-Connecticut at the Yale School of Medicine

Malcom Lytell, Research Aide, SEICHE Center for Health and Justice

Fiona Doherty, Deputy Dean for Experiential Education & Clinical Professor of Law

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 24, 2023

12:10 - 2:00 PM

STERLING LAW BUILDING, ROOM 120

LUNCH WILL BE SERVED - ZOOM LINK AVAILABLE

Register By 10/20/23

