Linkages 2017

Key: Underlined events are mandatory for the Latin American students (i.e., permission must be obtained from Brad before missing them)

Events in Italics are recommended, but are not mandatory.

Events in normal type are simply activities that might be of interest.

____________________________________________________________________________

Sunday, January 22 - Tuesday, January 24 - Arrivals

Tuesday, January 24

6:00 - 7:00 pm - Room 122 - Book Talk: Confessions of a Born- Again Pagan by Anthony Kronman

7:00 pm - Room 129 -- Introductory meeting over pizza (hosts welcome!)

Wednesday, January 25 - Orientation

8:45 am -- meet in dining hall for breakfast

9:30 am -- Campus Tour - Bring your camera! (law school, Baker Hall, cemetery, secret society, new colleges, Luce & Rosenkranz, Science Hill, Peabody, St. Mary’s, Battell, the Green, Linsly-Chittendem, YUAG, Medicine School, Art & Drama, Skull & Bones, GPSCY, Broadway, Payne Whitney Gymnasium, Morse College)

Break for lunch

2 - 4 pm - Room 120 - Program orientation

5:45 pm -- Meet at “The Table” to walk to Calhoun College for dinner

Thursday, January 26

11 am - Room 112 - Empirical legal and psychological studies of legitimacy with Tom Tyler

12:30 - Dining Hall - Lizzy Pierson and Callie Wilson

3 - 3:45 - Dean’s Office - Meet with Dean Robert Post
4:30 - Faculty Lounge - Legal Theory Workshop - Yuval Levin on “Some Perils of Religious Liberty” (Brad has the paper to be discussed)

4:30 - Whitney Humanities Center theatre, 53 Wall Street - Ziggy Stardust and the Spiders from Mars (film by D.A. Pennebaker, 1973)

Friday, January 27

9:45 - Computer classroom in lower level (L2) of the library - online research orientation

10:30 - Guided tour of the law library

11:15 - Rare book collection visit (The Institutes of Justinian, Las Siete Partidas, various first editions of constitutions from the region, illustrated law books, etc)

12:10 - Room 121 - Constitutional Resiliency in Brazil Today -- Oscar Vilhena Vieira

5 pm - Dining hall - YLS dessert contest

6 pm - Room 129 - Latin American Presentations over dinner

Welcome get-together

Saturday, January 28

12:30 pm -- Guided tour of the Yale Art Gallery, located at 1111 Chapel Street

7 pm - Ingall’s Ice Rink - Yale men’s ice hockey against Brown University (tickets start at $10 for standing room only; seats run from $12 behind the net to $25 for premium and can be purchased here)

7 pm - Whitney Humanities Center - Jules and Jim (film by Francois Truffaut, 1962) (free)

Monday, January 30

12 pm - TBD - Jocelyn Getgen Kestenbaum, “Sexual and Gender-Based Violence Crimes Against Children”

1 pm - Room 112 - Yas Banifatemi
4:30 pm - Faculty Lounge - Simon Levin - "Evolutionary Perspectives on Business Strategy."

Tuesday, January 31

12:10 - Room 121 - Daniel Markovits, Myriam Gilles, and Deepak Gupta - The Rise of Mandatory Arbitration and the Demise of Class Actions

2:10 - Room 128 - Deepak Gupta - Career options in Public Interest Litigation

4:15 pm - Faculty Lounge - Olivier Roy - Jihadism: Radicalization of Islam or Islamization of Radicalism?

6:00 - 7:00 pm - Room 128 - Book Talk: Interpreting law- A primer on how to read statutes and the Constitution by William N. Eskridge Jr.

Wednesday, February 1

12:10 - Room 121 - David Schleicher and Heather Gerken - Progressive Federalism

12:10 pm - 112 - Liz Leiserson on asylum work for the Lowenstein int’l human rights clinic

1:10 pm - Room 112 - Owen Fiss and the Structural Injunction

6:10 - 8:00 pm - Room 120 - Workshop on how to file Freedom of Information Access (FOIA) requests

Thursday, February 2

1 pm - Room 111 - Susan Rose-Ackerman on the anti-corruption campaign in Brazil

3 pm - Room 128 - Daniel Markovits on the perverse effect of ‘meritocracy’

6 - 9 pm - Room 128 - Graduate Student Movie Night in room 129: Relatos Salvajes, to be followed by discussion led by Sebas Guidi (Linkages class of 2016). Pizza will be served.

6 pm - Room 122 - Daniel Bonilla "The Legal Barbarians: Comparative Law, Legal Identities and the Global South" Dinner will be provided.
6:45 pm - Room 127 - Federalist Society event with JD Vance, a YLS alumnus currently receiving all kinds of attention in the media for his recent book “Hillbilly Elegy,” a portrait of white middle-class America in crisis.

Friday, February 3

Noon - 1 pm - Room 111 - Eric Fish on the YLS PhD program and Law Teaching Series

1 - 2 pm - Room 112 - Josh Galperin, director of the Environmental Protection Clinic, on "3rd Generation" environmental protection

6 pm - Room 129 - Latin American Presentations over dinner

Saturday, February 4

Yale Cabaret - The Meal (Reflections on Cannibalism) by Newton Moreno, Brazilian playwright - http://cab49.org/ (also playing February 2 and 3)

Sunday, February 5

6:30 pm - Super Bowl

Monday, February 6

Noon - Room 112 - Patrick Woolsey of YELA and YLPR

2:00 pm - Room 110 - Claire Priest on eminent domain and regulatory takings

4:30 - 6:00 pm - Room 127 - Rebecca Gomperts - “Putting Abortion Pills in Woman’s Hands: Ships, Apps, Drones and the Web”

6:10 - 8:00 pm - Room 124 - Liman Center Seminar on United States prison law (Joseph Meyers is the Linkages point person in the seminar)

6:10 - Room 127 - First screening of the documentary Well-Founded Fear (2 hour duration)

Tuesday, February 7

Noon - Room 128 - CertiKOS – a Hacking-Resistant Operating System – a Conversation with Yale CS Professor Zhong Shao
Noon - Faculty Lounge - Rebecca Gomperts, Violeta Canaves, et al - “Accessing Abortion in a Hostile Climate,”

2 - 3 pm - Room 128 - Olivia Boykin and Chris Desir of the Brennan-Marshall Constitutional Literacy Program

3 - 4 pm - Room 121 - Dan Kahan on the science of science communication

4:00 pm - Room 129 - Access to Justice: The Immigrant Justice Corps Fellowship

7:00 pm - Leitner Family Observatory - see the universe through Yale’s radiographic telescope

Wednesday, February 8

12:10 - Room 122 - Professors Linda Greenhouse and William Eskridge on President Trump’s Supreme Court nominee Gorsuch and its implications for the court and country.

12:10 - Room 121 - Dr. Cheng Li - Reassessing Collective Leadership in China

1:10 pm - Room 112 - Urja Mittal on the Yale Law Journal

6:10 - Room 127 - Second screening of Well-Founded Fear

Thursday, February 9

12 - 1 pm - Room 109 - Noah Messing*

12 pm - Faculty Lounge - Human Rights Workshop: Keramet Reiter, "23/7: Pelican Bay Prison and the Rise of Long-Term Solitary Confinement"

4:15 pm - Faculty Lounge - Legal Theory Workshop with Jedediah Purdy

Friday, February 10

Noon - Room 111 - Wil Bekker of the Petey Greene Project*
3:30 - 6:00 pm - Auditorium - Conference on Justice Clarence Thomas' 25 years on the Supreme Court (registration required)

5:00 - the Table - Meet Urja for a tour of the Yale Law Journal offices

6 pm - Room 129 - Latin American Presentations over dinner

8 pm - Queer Literary Salon

We'll have a cozy evening of readings starting at 8pm in the Swing Space (40A Ashmun St). Everyone is welcome to read: bring your own writing, read a piece by your favorite queer author, or just come to listen and enjoy some wine and cheese. Hope to see you there! Brought to you by OutLaws & the Office of LGBTQ Resources.

Saturday, February 11

7:00 pm - John Lee Amphitheater - Yale men's basketball against Harvard (tickets available here)

Monday, February 13

Noon - Room 121 - Gregg Gonsalves on grassroot organizing*

1:30 pm - Room 210 - Harold Koh*

7:00 pm - Farewell dinner at the home of Professor Markovits

Tuesday, February 14

12 pm - Room K290A - Professor Zachary Liscow on Innovation and Climate Change Law

1 pm - Room 110 - Allie Francis on the Center for Global Legal Challenges, National Security Group and IRAP

Wednesday, February 15

11:10 am -- Room 122 -- Tech and the New Politics of Power - Nancy Scola

12:10 - Room 129 - Fed Soc Presents: Paul Larkin on "Reconsidering the Role of Clemency in American Criminal Justice"; Commentary by Noah Messing
12:10 - TBD - Financial planning with John Caserta

1:30 - GHJP workroom - Christine Ricardo on the Global Health Justice Partnership

5:00 pm - Whitney Humanities Center, room 208 - What is it like to be a Dog? Lecture by Alexandra Horowitz, Barnard College

6:00 pm - Room 127 - Free Speech and its Limits: screening of “Inside Charlie Hebdo” to be followed by a discussion with YLS Dean Robert Post, Professor Jason Stanley, and Professor Patrick Weil

Thursday, February 16 - New York City day trip

6:45 am - take train to New York
9:30 am - check in at Second Circuit Federal Court of Appeals to listen to hearings and meet with one of the judges
1:00 pm - Lunch with Latin American associate lawyers at Debevoise
3:00 pm - visit Human Rights Watch

Friday, February 17

12 - 2 pm - Room 128 - William Finnegan of The New Yorker on the current situation in Venezuela

RebLaw!!!

Saturday, February 18

RebLaw!!

Departures :(