Jan 18  Alejandro Madrazo, LL.M.'03 and J.S.D '06
Professor-Researcher, CIDE Law School, Mexico and Schell Center
Visiting Fellow, Yale Law School
The Constitution as a Casualty of War (On Drugs)

Feb 1  Maria J. Stephan
Director, Program on Nonviolent Action, U.S. Institute for Peace
Why Civil Resistance Works and its Relevance to Resurgent Authoritarianism

Feb 8  Karuna Mantena
Associate Professor of Political Science, Yale University
Competing Theories of Nonviolent Politics

Feb 8 (Room 128)  Catherine Powell, '92
Professor of Law, Fordham Law School
We The People: These United Divided States

Feb 22  Jonathan Horowitz
Senior Legal Officer, National Security and Counterterrorism, Open Society Justice Initiative
Human Rights in the Context of Counterterrorism: Practical and Legal Challenges for Human Rights

Mar 1  Louisa Lombard
Assistant Professor of Anthropology, Yale University
Ethics in Wars of Protection: Peacekeepers Caught Between Bureaucracy, Sympathy, and Violence

Mar 8  Richard Ashby Wilson
Professor of Anthropology and Law, University of Connecticut
“Get ‘Em Out of Here!”: The Law of Incitement in An Era of Racist Populism

Mar 22  Javier Corrales
Dwight W. Morrow 1895 Professor of Political Science, Amherst College
The Expansion of – and Backlash Against – LGBT Rights in the Americas

Mar 29  Anthea Roberts
Associate Professor, School of Regulation and Global Governance, Australian National University
Is International Law International?

April 5  Michael W. Doyle
University Professor, Columbia University
Beyond Migrants and Refugees: A Model International Mobility Convention

Workshops will meet at 12:10 PM in the Faculty Lounge unless otherwise noted. For more information, contact the Schell Center at schell.law@yale.edu.