THE FORTY-SECOND ANNUAL
PUBLIC INTEREST LEGAL CAREER FAIR
FEBRUARY 7 & 8, 2019
9:00 A.M. – 5:00 P.M.
NEW YORK UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW
New York University School of Law is committed to a policy prohibiting discrimination in employment based on race, gender and/or gender identity or expression, color, creed, religion, age, national origin, ethnicity, disability, veteran or military status, sex, sexual orientation, partnership status, pregnancy or childbirth (including related medical conditions), genetic information, marital or parental status, alienage or citizenship status, domestic violence victim status, unemployment status, or on any other legally protected basis.

The Law School reserves the right to deny use of its facilities to employers that violate our anti-discrimination policy; however, pursuant to 32 CFR §216.3, federal funding may be denied to NYU if military recruiters are prevented from visiting NYU School of Law in the same manner and capacity as other employers. NYU School of Law will continue to pursue ameliorative actions to support the letter and spirit of our anti-discrimination policy.

Friday Student Lunches

Mobilize to Humanize: How Public Defenders are Transforming the Criminal Justice System
12:45 - 1:45 P.M.
Vanderbilt Hall, Room 220

Please join Gideon’s Promise Executive Director, Ilham Askia, for a presentation that will introduce you to the Gideon’s Promise model, created by MacArthur ‘Genius’ Jonathan Rapping, which focuses on changing the criminal justice system through training and supporting public defenders. Ms. Askia will discuss Gideon’s Promise’s innovative approach to public defense representation in some of the most challenging and resource-strapped jurisdictions, and how you can help transform public defense in the United States. Gideon’s Promise is working to create an equitable system by building a movement of zealous advocates who seek to humanize their clients through client-centered representation.

This event is sponsored by Gideon’s Promise.

Lunch with Equal Justice Works
12:45 - 1:45 P.M.
Furman Hall, Room 210

Is public interest law your passion? If so, join Brooke Meckler of Equal Justice Works for an epic lunchtime presentation. Let Brooke guide you through all the ways that Equal Justice Works can help you become the public interest superstar you have always dreamed of being. She will talk about postgraduate Fellowship opportunities, summer opportunities for 1Ls and 2Ls, debt relief resources and more. This is a presentation you do not want to miss!

This event is sponsored by the Law School Engagement and Advocacy Team at Equal Justice Works. So come eat, drink, and merrily learn about Equal Justice Works today!
Tips for using the Employer Directory:

1) To search for an employer, please use the organization’s full name as indicated on the PILC Fair site.
   a. Example: New York Legal Assistance Group, not NYLAG

2) Abbreviations are only used in two circumstances.
   a. An abbreviation is used when the organization is most commonly (or only) known by its abbreviation.
      i. Examples: ACLU, AHRC, AJC
   b. Organization names beginning with New York State, New York City, or United States will be abbreviated NYS, NYC, and U.S., respectively, and alphabetized accordingly.
      i. Examples: U.S. Department of Justice, not United States Department of Justice; NYC Housing Authority, not New York City Housing Authority

Friday Table Talk Directory

Tips for using the Table Talk Directory:

1) There are two Table Talk locations: Greenberg Lounge (1st Floor) and Golding Lounge (2nd Floor). They are both located in Vanderbilt Hall, 40 Washington Square South.

2) Some employers will only be in attendance for the morning session or the afternoon session. In those cases, the session an employer is attending will be noted next to its name.

3) The tables are mostly, but not entirely, in alphabetical order. If you are looking for a particular employer, please check the Employer Directory, beginning on page 5.

4) Abbreviations are only used in two circumstances.
   a. An abbreviation is used when the organization is most commonly (or only) known by its abbreviation.
      i. Examples: ACLU, AHRC, AJC
   b. Organization names beginning with New York State, New York City, or United States will be abbreviated NYS, NYC, and U.S., respectively, and alphabetized accordingly.
      i. Examples: U.S. Department of Justice, not United States Department of Justice; NYC Housing Authority, not New York City Housing Authority
