Thursday Student Lunches

California Employers Panel
12:45 - 1:45 P.M.
Vanderbilt Hall, Room 208

Get insights into the California public interest sector by attending an informal networking lunch and meet-and-greet with employers from the great state of California! You will have an opportunity to learn about the Northern and Southern California public interest law markets, find out about the types of work different agencies do and how they involve students through the summer experience, and speak with attorneys informally from a variety of public interest organizations. Employers will also discuss post-graduate employment opportunities in California.

This event is coordinated by Mental Health Advocacy Services with lunch provided by participating agencies. Please come prepared to network and ask questions!

Family Court and Family Law Career Panel
12:45 - 1:45 P.M.
Furman Hall, 9th Floor, Lester Pollack Colloquium

Learn about the many ways to pursue a career practicing in Family Court! Representatives from the Legal Aid Society’s Juvenile Rights Practice, Neighborhood Defender Service of Harlem’s Family Defense Practice, and the Urban Justice Center’s Domestic Violence Project, as well as a former NYC Family Court Referee, will talk about their work and career paths, share advice about entering their fields, and answer your questions. If you are considering a career in family law, you do not want miss this opportunity!

This event is sponsored by the New York City Bar Association Committee on Family Court and Family Law.
Thursday Employer Directory

Tips for using the Employer Directory:

1) To search for an employer, please use the organization’s full name as indicated on the PILC Fair site.
   a. Example: New York Legal Assistance Group, not NYLAG

2) Abbreviations are only used in two circumstances.
   a. An abbreviation is used when the organization is most commonly (or only) known by its abbreviation.
      i. Examples: ACLU, AHRC, AJC
   b. Organization names beginning with New York State, New York City, or United States will be abbreviated NYS, NYC, and U.S., respectively, and alphabetized accordingly.
      i. Examples: U.S. Department of Justice, not United States Department of Justice; NYC Housing Authority, not New York City Housing Authority

Thursday Table Talk Directory

Tips for using the Table Talk Directory:

1) There are two Table Talk locations: Greenberg Lounge (1st Floor) and Golding Lounge (2nd Floor). They are both located in Vanderbilt Hall, 40 Washington Square South.

2) Some employers will only be in attendance for the morning session or the afternoon session. In those cases, the session an employer is attending will be noted next to its name.

3) The tables are mostly, but not entirely, in alphabetical order. If you are looking for a particular employer, please check the Employer Directory, beginning on page 5.

4) Abbreviations are only used in two circumstances.
   a. An abbreviation is used when the organization is most commonly (or only) known by its abbreviation.
      i. Examples: ACLU, AHRC, AJC
   b. Organization names beginning with New York State, New York City, or United States will be abbreviated NYS, NYC, and U.S., respectively, and alphabetized accordingly.
      i. Examples: U.S. Department of Justice, not United States Department of Justice; NYC Housing Authority, not New York City Housing Authority
