Lambda Legal - Daniel H. Renberg Legal Fellowship

This opportunity is the inaugural iteration of the Daniel H. Renberg Law Fellowship, a Los Angeles-based, one-year position. The selected candidate will engage in cutting-edge impact litigation, public policy advocacy and education in furthering Lambda Legal’s mission. Lambda Legal is the nation’s oldest and largest legal organization committed to achieving full recognition of the civil rights of lesbians, gay men, bisexuals, transgender people and everyone living with HIV.

Lambda Legal – Tyron Garner Memorial Fellowship for African-American LGBT Civil Rights

This Dallas, TX-based, two-year fellowship honors the memory of Tyron Garner, one of the men Lambda Legal represented in the groundbreaking Supreme Court victory, Lawrence v. Texas (which struck down all remaining state sodomy laws in the country) and helps expand Lambda Legal’s work in African-American LGBT communities. Mr. Garner died in 2006, after his case vindicated the constitutional right to express sexual intimacy in adult relationships. Through the Garner Fellowship, Lambda Legal seeks to support law graduates dedicated to LGBT issues within African-American communities in ongoing engagement with civil rights work on behalf of LGBT individuals and people living with HIV.

This two-year, Boston or New York City-based fellowship includes regular travel to Haiti. IJDH partners with the Haiti-based Bureau des Avocats Internationaux (BAI) to support grassroots struggles for justice in Haiti and in the powerful countries abroad where decisions about Haitians’ rights are often made. IJDH and BAI combine traditional legal strategies with organizing, emerging technology and public advocacy to address the root causes of instability and poverty in Haiti. The Bertha Fellow responsibilities include domestic and international legal and policy research, drafting public advocacy documents, managing campaigns in collaboration with partner organizations, and engaging with international media. French or Haitian Creole language proficiency is preferred. https://t.e2ma.net/click/396u1/b8ua3x/j2v51f

International Court of Justice (ICJ) Judicial Fellows Programme
February 8, 2019
This one-year fellowship is based in The Hague, Netherlands, at the Peace Palace. The ICJ is the principal judicial organ of the United Nations, established in 1945. The Court’s role is to settle, in accordance with international law, legal disputes submitted to it by States and to give advisory opinions on legal questions referred to it by authorized United Nations organs and specialized agencies. The fellowship aims to improve participants’ understanding of international law and the Court’s procedures by actively involving them in the work of the Court and allowing fellows to build on their experience under the supervision of a judge.
