

Yale Legal History Forum

2017–2018

4:15-5:45 p.m. (Reception at 4:00 p.m.)
Yale Law School Faculty Lounge
(unless otherwise specified)

FALL

Rohit De | Yale University (History)

Tuesday, September 26, SLB 122

Defending Kenyatta: Decolonization, Mobility, and a Global History of Rebellious Lawyering

Mira Siegelberg | Queen Mary University of London (History and Law)

Tuesday, November 14

The Fate of Non State Legal Order in the Twentieth Century: On Intellectual History and International Legal History

Mitra Sharafi | University of Wisconsin Law School

Tuesday, December 5

Forensic Experts and Corruption in Colonial India: Graphology as a Suspect Science

SPRING

Li Chen | University of Toronto (History)

Tuesday, February 13, SLB 127

The Security Regime and Emergency Governance of Colonial Empires in Late Qing China

Erika Hermanowicz | University of Georgia (Classics)

Thursday, February 22, 5:00pm-6:30pm, HGS 211, co-sponsored by Archaia and the Departments of Classics, Religious Studies

The Roman Legal Understanding of Church Property in Late Antiquity

Walter Scheidel | Stanford (Classics and History)

Tuesday, February 27, co-sponsored by the Law, Economics & Organization Workshop

Escape from Rome: The Failure of Empire and the Making of the Modern World

Cynthia Nicoletti | University of Virginia School of Law

Tuesday, March 20

Emancipation and Its Challengers in the South Carolina Sea Islands

Matthew Sommer | Stanford University (History)

Tuesday, April 17

Gender Passing and Official Panic in Qing Dynasty China

For more information, please contact
Katharina Schmidt (katharina.i.schmidt@yale.edu) or José Argueta Funes
(jose.arguetafunes@yale.edu).